Functional Requirements for Disaster Alert & Resource Allocation System :

- Admin should be able to add, update and delete users.
- Admin should be able to manage roles and permissions.
- Operators should be able to create and send disaster alerts by area and severity.
- Operators should be able to add, update and delete resources.
- Operators should be able to assign resources to affected zones.
- Citizens should be able to register and choose their location and alert channels.
- Citizens should be able to receive alerts by SMS, email and push notification, and view active alerts.
- Decision makers should be able to view the dashboard, maps and reports.